FRIENDS OF YOUTH

Mission: Friends of Youth delivers a broad range of services to youth and their families to improve their emotional stability and self-sufficiency.

Service Areas	Residential Services for Out of Home Youth: housing for homeless young adults and pregnant or parenting mothers, intensive residential treatment for sexually aggressive youth and undocumented minors, and therapeutic foster care.
	Youth and Family Services (Community Based): counseling, parenting classes and substance abuse treatment and prevention and employment services.

With 60 years of experience, 22 program sites, from Everett to Renton and Seattle to the Snoqualmie Valley, and national accreditation, the agency provides a safe place to live and emotional support for the well-being of its clients: youth who are in challenging circumstances.
