NATIONAL SAFE PLACE PROGRAM

Beginning August 31, 2011 King County launched the “Safe Place” program. This program gives kids in crisis the option to go to King County Metro Bus Drivers trained in the “Safe Place” protocol and say, “I need a safe place.” These words allow the driver to make a call which connects the youth to an approved service provider to assess his/her needs. Three agencies are poised to respond: YouthCare, Auburn Youth Resources and Friends of Youth. We are pleased to be part of this program, giving youth in crisis a Safe Place.
