

For Immediate Release

For more information:

Rhoades Clark, rhoades@friendsofyouth.org

Friends of Youth Welcomes Lynn Juniel as Director of Development

Juniel Brings Over 30 Years of Development Experience to Friends of Youth

Lynn Juniel, Director of Development, Friends of Youth

Kirkland, WA — Friends of Youth (FOY) has hired Lynn Juniel as its new Director of Development.

Juniel will be responsible for donor engagement, raising funds for the organization, engaging volunteers, and overseeing FOY's grant writing team.

"Lynn is a positive, sincere and humble member of our community," says FOY President and CEO Paul Lwali. "We're thrilled to have her here."

Prior to joining FOY, Juniel was Executive Director for the Bellevue Schools Foundation. During her tenure she forged relationships with community partners, strengthened alignment with the Bellevue School District, increased revenue and led the Foundation through fiscal and strategic growth.

"I have long admired Friends of Youth for its vision and service to our community," Juniel says. "I'm excited to build upon the incredible work that Friends of Youth has done and to help lead its growth."

Juniel started at Friends of Youth on June 4, 2019.

###

About Friends of Youth: Established in 1951, Friends of Youth partners with youth and families to provide the relationships, resources, and skills they need to attain personal growth and success. We provide safe places and emotional support for youth facing challenging circumstances at 26 program sites in 18 cities. Our vision is for all youth to have every opportunity to succeed, and our services are designed to fulfill that vision. For more information, visit friendsofyouth.org.