FRIENDS OF YOUTH NAMES FIVE NEW MEMBERS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

REDMOND, February 7, 2011 - Friends of Youth (www.friendsofyouth.org) has announced several valuable additions to the youth service agency's team. New to the board are the following:

Jeane Buchanan, Enterprise Sales Specialist at Symantec

Thomas Ku, Financial Consultant & Vice President at Wells Fargo Investments

Katherine Thompson, Senior Vice President, Puget Sound Bank

Susan Webber, President, Peak Result Coaching

Holly Zimmerman, Director at Amazon Digital Services

Each new member brings enthusiasm, expertise and a genuine commitment to the work of the agency.

“We are thrilled to bring such a talented team to our board,” said Joan Campbell, President and CEO of Friends of Youth. “Their leadership and experience will be a valuable asset to our organization as we strengthen our therapeutic and homeless services for youth and young adults.”

Friends of Youth is a non-profit agency that provides a complete portfolio of shelter, housing, counseling and prevention services for young people and their families in King & Snohomish Counties in Washington State.
